

2016 Youth Protection Symposium

Friday, April 29, 2016

8:00am-1:00pm

Featuring Victor Vieth, executive director emeritus of the Gundersen National Children Protection Training Center.

Mr. Vieth's topics:

In Search of the Bottom Line:

What every Youth-Serving Organization (YSO) Should Know

Covers the ten things every YSO should know about sex offenders and other child abusers. Learn ten concrete policies and other reforms every YSO should implement.

Understanding Adverse Childhood Experience (ACE) Research

Covers detailed explanations of ACE research and its relevance to YSOs. Additionally, discusses the resilient child and what YSOs can do to assist children in overcoming abuse and neglect.

For professionals and volunteers who work with children and families including educators and administrators, childcare providers, law enforcement, community youth-serving organizations, health and human service providers, faith-based organizations, healthcare and victim advocates.
